

STRIKE WHILE THE IRON IS HOT!
STOCKS ARE LIMITED SO SAVE TODAY ON THE HOT POINT STEAM IRON OR PRESSURE STEAM IRON NOW ONLY R11.95

Home Owner: Pages 8 to 11
R1 000 Jackpot: Page 2

DAILY MAIL
JOHANNESBURG, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1971

SUPER SAVINGS FOR THE COFFEE SET
STOCKS ARE LIMITED SO SAVE TODAY ON THE NATIONAL 12 CUP AUTOMATIC COFFEE PERCOLATOR OR PRESSURE STEAM IRON NOW ONLY R1 6.95

John Day's OF ELDF STREET

Daily Mail
It's anti security

IT IS NOT TYPICAL that the Security Police officers of the Security Police are necessary in the interests of State security. In fact, it would be difficult to imagine anything more than a normal security force in a normal country. The Security Police are a necessary evil, a necessary evil that has become a permanent feature of the South African landscape. The Security Police are a necessary evil that has become a permanent feature of the South African landscape. The Security Police are a necessary evil that has become a permanent feature of the South African landscape.

A boost

When the Security Police officers of the Security Police are necessary in the interests of State security. In fact, it would be difficult to imagine anything more than a normal security force in a normal country. The Security Police are a necessary evil, a necessary evil that has become a permanent feature of the South African landscape.

Mr. Vorster answers 'Mail' questions

Mr. Vorster answered questions from the Daily Mail on Saturday. He was asked about the Security Police and the role of the Opposition. He said that the Security Police are necessary for the maintenance of law and order in the country. He also said that the Opposition has a right to be heard, but that it must be done in a responsible manner.

Thousands watch as Ahmed Timol buried

A large crowd gathered to watch the burial of Ahmed Timol in Johannesburg. The crowd included many people who had been involved in the struggle against apartheid. The burial was a significant event in the history of the anti-apartheid movement.

Mother's prayer on plea decision

A mother's prayer was read during the plea decision for a young man. The prayer was a touching moment that highlighted the human side of the legal system. The young man's mother expressed her hope for a just outcome and her faith in the courts.

Stradling hits WCC grants

Mr. Stradling criticized the World Council of Churches (WCC) grants. He said that the grants were being used in a way that was not in the best interests of the community. He called for a more transparent and accountable use of the funds.

Breakfast quip

A humorous quip was made during a breakfast session. The quip was a light-hearted comment on the current events of the day. It was well-received by the audience.

Detainees: Graaff warns

Thousands watch as Ahmed Timol buried. A large crowd gathered to watch the burial of Ahmed Timol in Johannesburg. The crowd included many people who had been involved in the struggle against apartheid. The burial was a significant event in the history of the anti-apartheid movement.

Mother's prayer on plea decision

A mother's prayer was read during the plea decision for a young man. The prayer was a touching moment that highlighted the human side of the legal system. The young man's mother expressed her hope for a just outcome and her faith in the courts.

Stradling hits WCC grants

Mr. Stradling criticized the World Council of Churches (WCC) grants. He said that the grants were being used in a way that was not in the best interests of the community. He called for a more transparent and accountable use of the funds.

Breakfast quip

A humorous quip was made during a breakfast session. The quip was a light-hearted comment on the current events of the day. It was well-received by the audience.

Mr. Vorster answers 'Mail' questions

Mr. Vorster answered questions from the Daily Mail on Saturday. He was asked about the Security Police and the role of the Opposition. He said that the Security Police are necessary for the maintenance of law and order in the country. He also said that the Opposition has a right to be heard, but that it must be done in a responsible manner.

Detainees: Graaff warns

Thousands watch as Ahmed Timol buried. A large crowd gathered to watch the burial of Ahmed Timol in Johannesburg. The crowd included many people who had been involved in the struggle against apartheid. The burial was a significant event in the history of the anti-apartheid movement.

Mother's prayer on plea decision

A mother's prayer was read during the plea decision for a young man. The prayer was a touching moment that highlighted the human side of the legal system. The young man's mother expressed her hope for a just outcome and her faith in the courts.

Stradling hits WCC grants

Mr. Stradling criticized the World Council of Churches (WCC) grants. He said that the grants were being used in a way that was not in the best interests of the community. He called for a more transparent and accountable use of the funds.

Breakfast quip

A humorous quip was made during a breakfast session. The quip was a light-hearted comment on the current events of the day. It was well-received by the audience.

Mr. Vorster answers 'Mail' questions

Mr. Vorster answered questions from the Daily Mail on Saturday. He was asked about the Security Police and the role of the Opposition. He said that the Security Police are necessary for the maintenance of law and order in the country. He also said that the Opposition has a right to be heard, but that it must be done in a responsible manner.

Breakfast quip

A humorous quip was made during a breakfast session. The quip was a light-hearted comment on the current events of the day. It was well-received by the audience.

Detainees: Graaff warns

Thousands watch as Ahmed Timol buried. A large crowd gathered to watch the burial of Ahmed Timol in Johannesburg. The crowd included many people who had been involved in the struggle against apartheid. The burial was a significant event in the history of the anti-apartheid movement.

Mother's prayer on plea decision

A mother's prayer was read during the plea decision for a young man. The prayer was a touching moment that highlighted the human side of the legal system. The young man's mother expressed her hope for a just outcome and her faith in the courts.

Stradling hits WCC grants

Mr. Stradling criticized the World Council of Churches (WCC) grants. He said that the grants were being used in a way that was not in the best interests of the community. He called for a more transparent and accountable use of the funds.

Breakfast quip

A humorous quip was made during a breakfast session. The quip was a light-hearted comment on the current events of the day. It was well-received by the audience.

Mr. Vorster answers 'Mail' questions

Mr. Vorster answered questions from the Daily Mail on Saturday. He was asked about the Security Police and the role of the Opposition. He said that the Security Police are necessary for the maintenance of law and order in the country. He also said that the Opposition has a right to be heard, but that it must be done in a responsible manner.

Breakfast quip

A humorous quip was made during a breakfast session. The quip was a light-hearted comment on the current events of the day. It was well-received by the audience.