SB chief offers dead teacher's father sympathy... and sweets

● As shock over the death of detainee Ahmed Timol swept the country yesterday, his father went to John Vorster Square, scene of his son's deathfall, to make arrangements for the funeral. There he met the chief of Johannesburg's Security Police, Colonel Greyling, who offered him sympathy... and a sweet. Mr. Timol could not accept the sweet because of the Ramadan fast. Full story and pictures on Page 3.

HOSPITAL SHOCK AS DAAD SEES HELD SON

● POST reporter Mike Norton helps Mr. Yusuf Essop after he had collapsed on hearing of a mystery message that claimed his detained son, 22-year-old Mohamed, was seriously ill in Pretoria's H. F. Verwoerd Hospital. Later Mr. Essop went to the hospital and caught a dramatic glimpse of Mohamed. See Page 12 for full story.
