Author, A Quest for Justice

Dear Mr Cajee

Invitation to speak at seminar Commemorating the ANC at 100: Writing, Remembering and Gendering, Wednesday 26 September 2012

The Department of Historical and Heritage Studies in collaboration with Department Political Sciences would like to invite you to be one of the guest speakers at the "ANC centenary seminar" which will be held on Wednesday, 26 September 2012 from 10:00 to 12:30.

The theme of the seminar is:
"Commemorating the ANC at 100: Writing, Remembering and Gendering".

The provisional programme is as follows:

Date: Wednesday 26 September 2012

Time: 10:00 – 12:30

Venue: IT 2-27

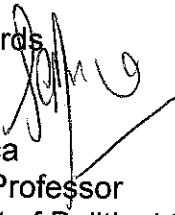

Time	Event	Chair	Speakers
10:00 – 10:05	Opening	Prof Norman Duncan Dean of Humanities (tbc)
10:05-12:30	Session 1 "Writing" and "Gendering" with Q & A	Prof Norman Duncan Dean of Humanities (tbc)	Dr Thula Simpson Dr Arianna Lissoni
11:15-11:30	Tea	(Burgundy's)
11:30-12:45	Session 2 "Remembering: A Quest for Justice " with Q & A	Prof Sandy Africa (Dept Political Sciences)	Mr Imtiaz Cajee

The purpose of the seminar is to acknowledge the historic occasion of the centenary of the ANC. As such, both departments would like you to present a paper based on the book you have written on the life and times of your uncle, the late Ahmed Timol, titled "A Quest for Justice". We hope to attract students, academics and interested members of the public to the seminar.

Each of the three speakers on the programme will focus on a different aspect in recalling and contextualising the history of the ANC: whilst you will provide a thoughtful and personal reflection on how you went about writing your book, the other speakers will focus on conducting academic research. The Department of Historical and Heritage Studies as well as the Department of Political Sciences look forward to an informative presentation.

We look forward to your positive response.

Warm regards

Prof S Africa
Associate Professor
