SANDTON TOWN COUNCIL'S proposed civic centre development would destroy the physical and social safety of the area, a local resident said in argument at the

A time for prayer

A time for meditation and prayer last night for Mr. and Mrs. Yusuf Timol, of Roodepoort, as they mourn the death of their eldest son, Ahmed, and pray for the safety of their youngest son, Mohammed, detained in Durban. The broken-hearted parents are pictured in their flat in Mare Street as they read the Koran during the Ramadan fast. Mrs. Timol reads aloud to her husband who is partially blind.
