

Div warns PM of disquiet over custody deaths

Doctor quiet on Timol autopsy

Call for Terror Act repeal

PARIS—The leader of the Communist Party, Maurice Thorez, has said that he refused to sign a special judicial order that would allow the execution of a man who had been convicted of a crime after repeated deaths of people in custody.

Thorez said that he was not signing the order because he was not convinced that the man was guilty of the crime. He said that he was not signing the order because he was not convinced that the man was guilty of the crime.

No need for inquiry — Vorster

ESSOP'S DESCRIBE ARRESTS

STAFF REPORTER

THE ESSOP family, of Southampton, had no less hidden how they handled the death of their son, John, who was killed in the work of the security forces.

Mr. Essop said that he was not signing the order because he was not convinced that the man was guilty of the crime. He said that he was not signing the order because he was not convinced that the man was guilty of the crime.

Denounce deaths, say India

More pleas likely

STAFF REPORTER

Student pickets, some with placards, made their protest near the University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg.

Mr. Essop said that he was not signing the order because he was not convinced that the man was guilty of the crime. He said that he was not signing the order because he was not convinced that the man was guilty of the crime.

Student pickets, some with placards, made their protest near the University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg.

Families can't give them food

STAFF REPORTER

THE SECURITY POLICE have refused to accept food and other supplies for the families of the men who were arrested in the work of the security forces.

Mr. Essop said that he was not signing the order because he was not convinced that the man was guilty of the crime. He said that he was not signing the order because he was not convinced that the man was guilty of the crime.

India

Mr. Essop said that he was not signing the order because he was not convinced that the man was guilty of the crime. He said that he was not signing the order because he was not convinced that the man was guilty of the crime.

Campus calls for inquiry

PERRILLY'S PRIVATE BLEND CIGARETTES

Made in South Africa