

While the world watches, 40 fight for their lives

THE WHOLE WORLD was watching when the three major sabotage trials started in Pretoria, Cape Town and Maritzburg. But it is through the eyes of those at home, watching the trials, that the world hears the news... and waits.

DRUM's cameraman at the Palace of Justice in Pretoria watched too as the crowds surged forward to find a place in the packed court-room for the 'Rivonia trial.' There was excitement outside, tension within.

There were the relatives and friends, who watched silently too as their loved ones were brought to trial on the charges that could send them to their deaths.

The people facing the charges in the three cases are:

● PRETORIA: Nelson Mandela, Walter Sisulu, Dennis Goldberg, Lionel 'Rusty' Bernstein, Govan Mbeki, Ahmed 'Kathy' Kathrada, James Kantor, Andrew Mlangeni, Elias Motsaedi, Raymond Mahlaba.

● CAPE TOWN: Neville Alexander, Don Davis, Marcus Solomons, Elizabeth van den Heyden, Fikili Bam, Ian Leslie van den Heyden, Lionel Davis, Dorothy Alexander, Dulcie September, Doris van den Heyden, Gordon Hendricks.

● MARITZBURG: Ebrahim Ismail, Girja Singh, Natvarial Babenia, Billy Nair, Kisten Moonsamy, George Natker, Kisten Doorsamy, Currick Ndhlovu, Ragoowan Kistensamy, Riot Mkwanazi, Alfred Duma, Msizeni Shadrack Mapumulo, Mfanyane Bernard Nkosi, Zakela Mhlalose, Matheys Meyiwa, Joshua Tembinkosi Zulu, Mdingeni David Mkize, David Ndawonde, Siva Pillay.

Transvaal Attorney-General Mr. R.W. Rein, man responsible for the indictment, watches as the crowds arrive to hear the trial

Outside Pretoria's Palace of Justice, two anxious faces watch and wait... One person who was not there was Mrs. Winnie Mandela — she is confined to Johannesburg
