

AT 103, MR. KAJEE JUST WANTS A PLACE TO REST

My time is near...

his health is not good. And he's puzzled at suddenly finding himself homeless.

DRUM was there to photograph his eviction, and to record his plea to his son-in-law and guardian, Mr. Goolam Kotwal: "Please, find me a place where I can stay in peace. My time is very near. I need rest."

Mr. Kajee, a Muslim, can't understand why he has been forced to leave the house. The court order gave the reason as non-payment of rent, but he insists that he has always paid the R19 rental (the sum fixed by the Rent Board). He showed his last receipt, which was for last month's rent.

His son-in-law's attorney told DRUM that the rent had always been paid.

But the landlord claimed that neither Mr. Kajee nor Mr. Kotwal were his tenants. He said the house had been let to somebody else, who in turn sub-let it — and he had obtained the eviction order because the rent hadn't been paid.

Since their eviction, Mr. Kajee and the Kotwal family have been given temporary accommodation by friends and sympathizers in various parts of Vrededorp. They are, of course, scattered.

On the night of the eviction, Mr. Kotwal spent the night in a truck outside the house, guarding his and the old man's possessions.

I would lose my job if my skin did not look smooth, soft, free from spots. Mine is clear, bright and light... thanks to Super-Rose 'Special' Pimple, Freckle and Complexion Lotion. Being a liquid it cleans the skin and works faster than cream.

Only 30c a bottle. Double Size 50c.
P.S. The make-up of my choice is Super-Rose Special Cream, 75c a tube.
