

I, ABDULLA GOOLAM MOHAMMED ADAM, IDENTITY NUMBER 470707 5833 083 declare under oath:

1.

I was born in Ladysmith and completed my schooling there. In 1969 I came to Johannesburg and initially work at CADAC

2.

I heard there was an opening at Dollars Garage and I applied for the position as an Assistant Bookkeeper. I have been working for this company for 47 years and I am still on a part time basis assisting them 3.

Dollars Garage and Dollars Panel Beaters are situated directly opposite John Vorster Square now named Johannesburg Central Police Station 4.

On a certain date my boss, the late Herbie Deeb, drew my attention to some commotion across the street. As I went forward to investigate to see what was happening I went across the street Main Reef Road and observe a body lying in the shrubs. This was about 10 metres away. This was the only time in my life where something like this happened which I saw the body. Afterwards I have read in the newspapers that it was a school teacher from Roodepoort. As to the time before my boss called me I am quite sure it was midmorning around tea time.

5.

Getting to the scene some onlookers have already gathered. I saw the body lying there but we were chased away. I went back to my duties and I did not observe an ambulance or anything further.
