4. My curiosity was extinguished when it was announced that the mysterious Security Branch Officer was Mr. Seth Sons.

FACTUAL DETAILS

7. Sometime in the early 1970's, I was looking after my grandfather's shop by the name of "Cheap Store" situated at Grand Place, Lenasia as my grandfather had left for India.
8. Mr. Seth Sons paid me a visit at the store and after he introduced himself as a Senior Member of the Bureau of State Security (BOSS), asked me to shut the store and accompany him to John Voster Square, which I did.
9. I can clearly remember that the motor vehicle he was driving a white Rambler.
10. At this stage, I was a member of the Black Peoples Convention (BPC) and Peoples Experimental Theatre (PET).
11. On the 9th Floor, John Voster Square, Johannesburg, he asked various questions relating to my involvement with BPC and PET.
12. These questions related to the activities which included the poetry reading, theatre and the songs we sung.
13. He told me in no uncertain terms that I was involved in "dangerous activities" and to refrain from doing so, and that my conduct will be monitored.

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of a stylized, cursive name followed by a long, sweeping horizontal line that extends to the right.

14. He then asked me to stand up and come to an open window on the 9th floor.

15. When I was at the window he pointed out something which required me to look out.

16. At this point, he suddenly and without notice, grabbed me at the back of my neck and thrust me forward.

17. I was now able to see the ground beneath the 9th floor. Whereupon he mentioned the following words to the effect that:

“what happened to Timol could happen to you”.

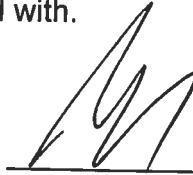

18. This sent a shiver through my spine which was again evoked when I seen him on the SABC 2 News.

19. He then drove me back Lenasia.

Dated and signed at Johannesburg on this the <sup>18th</sup>.....August 2017.
