

S.S (Sietze) Albertse

Key Skills:

- Processing and investigation of crime scenes
- Courtroom presentation
- Fingerprint analysis and comparison
- Development of training material
- Facilitation and training
- Project management
- Photography and visual representation of crime scenes

Education and Training

Matric

Eldoraigne High School (Pretoria)

December 1985

Officers Training

SAPS Training Academy:

December 2004

Subjects:

- Personal Effectiveness
- Generic management
- Communication
- HR Management
- Functional management
- Financial and logistical management

National Diploma in Policing

Technicon SA Dec 1998

Advanced Program in Forensic Criminalistics

Unisa Dec 1998

Courses

- Basic fingerprint course: SAPS
- Introduction for members of criminalistics units: SAPS
- Junior Commander course: SAPS
- Advanced crime scene course: SAPS
- Video Course: SAPS
- Analyst Notebook Course: Visual Analysis
- Evidence collection and preservation techniques: FBI
- Major case management: FBI
- Weapons of mass destruction, First responder: USA

Career History: Current Position

Forensic Tools

Business development manager

September 2019– present

Roles and responsibility

- Crime scene processing and event reconstruction.
- Fingerprint investigation and analysis.
- Skills transfer and presentations
- Curriculum development
- Equipment development

Career History: Earlier Position

Consultant

Self-employed

August 2018– September 2019

Roles and responsibility

- Crime scene processing and event reconstruction.
- Fingerprint investigation and analysis.
- Skills transfer and presentations
- Curriculum development

Investigator

Bidvest Protea Coin (BPC)

June 2018 – August 2018

Roles and responsibility

- Investigation of counterfeit goods for Unilever brand protection.
- Identify sales of possible counterfeit goods.
- Initiate sales and document process.
- Prepare docket with statements and lab results.
- Facilitate transfer of information to SAPS and counterfeit investigation attorneys.
- Manage funds for the project.

Specialist: Training and support

Forensic Data Analysts

October 2015 - May 2018

Roles and Responsibilities:

- Prepare and maintain training curriculum and material for the use of specialized crime scene equipment and processing techniques.
- Manage RFQ's and invoices for training interventions and all training logistics.
- Manage and maintain a private fingerprint laboratory.

S.S (Sietze) Albertse

Courses

- ISO 9001 and Lead auditors course: TIQMS
- Bloodstain pattern interpretation course: USA
- Advanced crime scene management and processing: French Police
- ISO 17025 Lab systems course: SANAS
- Ridgeology science course: USA
- Bomb scene management and terrorism investigations: New Scotland Yard
- Psychologically motivated crimes course: SAPS
- Bloodstain pattern analysis and crime scene reconstruction: USA
- Victims identification course: France
- Virtual crime scene reconstruction: UK
- Advanced fabrics bloodstain pattern and interpretation: Australia

Registered Bodies

- Outcome Based Assessment: SASSETA
- International Association for Identification (IAI) no 25143

Languages

- English: Excellent
- Afrikaans: Excellent

Full Name, Nationality and EE Status

Full Names: Sietze Sibó Albertse

Nationality: South African

EE Status: White Male

Contact Details

Address: 1185 Collins Avenue,

Moregloed

Pretoria,

0186

Mobile No: +27 823828724

E-mail: albertsesietze@gmail.com

- Conduct training and manage assessments as well as issuing of competency certificates.
- Development of new technology regarding crime scene processing.

Manager National Crime Scene Processing Team

South African Police Service (Division Forensic Services)

January 2001 - October 2015

Roles and Responsibilities:

- Ensure that the duties and responsibilities of members are carried out.
- Ensure that equipment and vehicles are well maintained according to prescripts.
- Ensure that members are well equipped to perform their duties.
- Manage the case dockets and targets of members.
- Attend to major cases in order to ensure that cases are properly processed using all support resources.
- Prepare cases for court and present expert evidence regarding forensic evidence.
- Prepare standard operating procedures for crime scene processing.
- Prepare learning program for Crime Scene management Policy.
- Prepare learning material for Learning Program for Crime Scene Examiners.

Crime Scene Examiner and Fingerprint Expert

South African Police Service (LCRC Krugersdorp and LCRC Pretoria)

January 1988 – December 2001

Roles and Responsibilities:

- Processing of crime scenes for physical evidence using all available support resources. (Video, Photographs, plan drawing, crime scene reconstruction, collection of physical evidence)
- Search for and comparison of fingerprints and presentation of results in court.
- Ensure that all duties are performed within the parameters of standard operating procedures.

Fingerprint Expert

South African Police Service (National Criminal Fingerprint Database Search room Pretoria)

June 1986 – December 1987